There was much rejolding at Jack Johnson's camp Tuesday night as a result of the champion's splendid workout in the afternoon. The presence of Governor Dickerson is believed to have been a source of considerable inspiration to the big negro, and his spirited per-

It was gossiped about town Tuesday night that Governor Dickerson would make unother trip to Moana Springs early yesterday in the hope of seeing Jeffries in action. The cool manner in which Jeffries turned down a request for a boxing exhibition while the governor was at his camp Tuesday, led to not a little criticism. Jeffries again went into action with his sparring partners late yesterday, with Governor Dickerson as guest of honor and the whole sporting fraternity now gathered here as eye witnesses. There were a thousand spectators.

Jeffries did six rounds of boxing, two with Joe Choynski, two with his brotaer, Jack, and two with Sam Berger. He appeared in high spirits and went through his work with plenty of snap and go, but the boxing was not unusually fast or exciting.

A rumor that had been affoat here for several days was given a quietus by Rickard, when he asserted with much vigor that the plan of taking off the round limit of the contest and making it a fight to a finish had never entered the heads of anyone concerned.
